WOMAN WRITER,
NOTED EDUCATOR,
TIRED OF LIFE

Mary Helen Fee Wrote Good-
by Letter, Then Tried
Suicide in Park.

LONG IN PHILIPPINES.

Friend Says Letter From Turkey, Where She Planned to Go, Depressed Her.

Mary Helen Fee, educator and author, was found at the entrance of St. Nicholas Park, 125th Street and St. Nicholas Avenue, shortly after 2.30 this morning, her wrist cut and apparently bleeding to death, by Patrolman Feudner of the West 125th Street Station.

In her right hand were two letters, one to the police asking that her name be kept from the papers, and that Mrs. Virginia Ault, No. 675 Riverside Drive, be notified. It also said, "I have chosen this spot so as to avoid making trouble for any one."

The other letter, addressed to Frederick Fee, No. 125 East Avenue, South Oak Park, Ill., a brother, said that she was "tired of life." In this letter she said that in a trunk at No. 125 East 125th Street, Brooklyn, would be found letters to him and to her friends explaining everything.

The police at once got in touch with Mrs. Ault, and Terence Ault hurried to the Harlem Hospital, where Miss Fee had been taken in a serious condition and identified as the writer and educator. He could give no reason for her desire to die. Mrs. Ault said later:

"There is no doubt this is Miss Fee, whose work as an educator in the Philippines and as a writer on educational subjects is so well known. I cannot imagine what has caused her act, but I know she hoped to return to Constantinople soon and that she yesterday received a letter from that city, which seemed to depress her greatly."

At the Brooklyn address E. R. Noyes, who occupies the house, said that the place had changed hands recently and that he knew nothing of Miss Fee except that when he leased the place last Wednesday an arrangement was made whereby she retained the use of two rooms. Her belongings are still in the house untouched.

From other friends it was learned that Miss Fee had spent some time in Turkey during the war with the Red Cross.

She was born in Quincy, Ill., in 1864, and for many years was head of the English department of the Philippine Normal School. She has written a number of books.

NEW YORKER ROBBED
OF $50,000, HE SAYS

Complains to Cincinnati Police of Loss of Diamonds and Valuable Securities.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CINCINNATI, July 3.—Complaint was made to the police here to-day by Jacob Jentleson, who is registered at the Gibson House, 40 from No. 71 Nassau Street, New York, that he had been robbed of a package of diamonds valued at $25,000 and a wallet containing securities valued at more than $25,000. One item of securities was a promissory note for $2,223.

The job is believed to be that of hotel sneak thieves, who had followed Jentleson to this city, though Frank Rice, declared by the police to be a Cleveland man, who failed to appear for a hearing in police court to-day on charge of like nature at the same hotel, forfeiting a $2,900 bond, is being searched for in connection with the Jentleson case.

Wearing a wedding ring draped in black and red ribbons signifying, she explained, her divorce and her joy thereat, Mrs. Florida Rogovsky, whose romance with George Rogovsky, Russian musician, was recently brought to an abrupt termination by the divorce court in Seattle, and who returned here yesterday is to-day receiving the congratulations of her friends.

"The black ribbon indicates the divorce and the red ribbon shows my joy at being free once more," she explained. The Rogovys were married in 1911 following an introduction by Oscar Hammerstein. She was Florida L. Waidman of Philadelphia. She said to-day that less than half an hour after she received her decree in the Western city, her former husband proposed to her again. The court gave her the custody of her five-year-old child.

He got her into shallow water after a hard struggle and just as she gained her footing, Strauber sank from sight. The young woman disappeared in the crowd on the beach.

PLATFORM SILENT
ON LIQUOR ISSUE
BY WILSON'S WISH

Glass Explains That President
Didn't Want Anything to Cloud League Plank.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—That the President's influence was paramount in the framing of the platform was disclosed to-day by Senator Glass, who explained why he and other Administration leaders counseled silence on the liquor question. That was done, Senator Glass said, so that nothing should be permitted to cloud the issue nearest President Wilson's heart—the League of Nations. The President wished the League issue to be sharply drawn against the Republicans, and wanted it made the outstanding feature of the platform, and it was deemed inadvisable to allow any other issue to be raised which would throw the League question even partly into the background in the campaign.

That the league issue is clear and unmistakable now the election will constitute the "solemn referendum" which President Wilson in his Jackson Day letter demanded, there is no longer any doubt, party leaders said.

Comment was caused to-day by a change made in the platform after Senator Glass read it to the convention. The change was made in the plank relating to disabled soldiers, which reads in part:

"The fine patriotism exhibited—by American soldiers, sailors and marines—constitute a sacred heritage of posterity, the worth of which can never be recompensed from the treasury, and the glory of which must not be diminished by any such expedients."

The change consisted in elimination of the words "by any such expedients." Senator Glass explained that the words did not belong there, but had been left in by mistake in copying the platform. He noticed the error in reading it and caused the change to be made.

STATE SOCIALISTS MEET.

Algeron Lee Denounces 1920 Legislature in Keynote Address.

The first State Socialist convention since 1918 opened to-day at No. 7 East 15th Street, and Algeron Lee was made Chairman of the opening session. In his keynote address he said it was fortunate for the Socialists that "the ruling classes never can be wise when wisdom is most needed." He denounced the Lusk Committee and the 1920 Legislature, which he said will be recorded in history as having "committed the most treason and done the least work to offset it."

Nominations for State offices are expected to be made to-morrow.

WILL PASS ON WAGE AWARD.
More Than 1,000 Railroad Union
Officials to Meet in Chicago.
CHICAGO, July 3.—More than 1,000 officials of the sixteen railroad brotherhoods will meet in Chicago July 19 to pass on the wage award of the United States Railroad Labor Board.

WET AND DRY PLATFORMS OF COCKRAN AND BRYAN
THAT CONVENTION REJECTED

Only 155½ Votes Cast for the Bone Dry Proposal, But the Wets Rolled Up 346.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.
Following are the texts of the "wet plank" offered by W. Bourke Cockran and the dry plank by W. J. Bryan, both rejected by the convention:

COCKRAN'S WET PLANK.
"The validity of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution has been sustained by the Supreme Court and any law enacted under its authority must be enforced. In the interest of personal liberty, to conserve the rights of the States, we favor Federal legislation under the Eighteenth Amendment allowing the manufacture and sale for home consumption only of cider, light wines and beer, preserving to the various States power to fix any alcoholic content thereof other than as fixed by Congress as may be demanded by the opinion or wishes of each locality."—Defeated, 726½ to 346.

BRYAN'S DRY PLANK.
"We heartily congratulate the Democratic Party on its splendid leadership in the submission and ratification of the Prohibition Amendment to the Federal Constitution, and we pledge the party to the strict enforcement of the present enforcement law, honestly and in good faith, without any increase in the alcoholic content of permitted beverages and without any weakening of any other of its provisions."—Defeated, 929 1-2 to 155 1-2.

BRYAN SUFFERS FIVE DEFEATS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN suffered five defeats in his efforts to amend the Democratic platform:

He lost his bone dry plank by a vote of 929 1-2 to 155 1-2. He lost by acclamation his plank demanding a Constitutional Amendment providing for ratification of treaties by a majority vote of the Senate and practical acceptance of the Lodge reservations.

He lost by acclamation his plank declaring against compulsory military training in time of peace.

He lost by acclamation his plank on profiteering, the convention adopting the committee report on that subject.

He lost by acclamation his plank providing for the establishment of a Federal newspaper, to be called the National Bulletin.

LOST $1,200,000 SAYS
YOUNG BROKER

Syracuse Man Claims He Was Recouping Here When Arrested on Larceny Charge.

Robert Morris, a young Syracuse stock broker, arrested here to-day on a charge of grand larceny, told the police he had lost more than $1,000,000 in stocks deals in a few months and had come to New York with the hope of making enough to pay a $350,000 debt and thus square the larceny charge. He was committed to jail by Magistrate Frothingham in Harlem Court, to be held for the Syracuse authorities.

Morris took a furnished apartment at No. 387 Lexington Avenue, and there he was arrested by Detectives Unger and Ryan of the East 104th Street Station.

He said that last July he borrowed $350,000 of the funds of an estate, giving his note, and then lost this money and $850,000 more. He was arrested in Syracuse and released in $5,000 bail. He said in the few months he had been in New York he had cleared $50,000 in stock deals and had expected to make $25,000 more to-day. He is married, he said, and his wife is with relatives in Toronto.

YOUTH HAS $1.80
AFTER SEEING CITY

But Lumberman's Son Owes $42
Auto Hire and Hotel Bill and Goes to Jail.

Clyde Graham, who says he is the son of a California lumber man, came down here from Montreal last Wednesday to spend the holidays. Justice Ten Eyck in West Side Court to-day extended the city's welcome to the youth, but said he would have to enjoy it in jail.

Graham said he went to the Hotel Belmont and got a suite. That night he enjoyed a good show and looked over what is left of Broadway's bright lights. The next day he rented rooms in the Hotel Astor and Friday he met a young woman. Both wanted to see New York, so Graham hired an auto from Hess Brothers in West 43d Street. The charge was $42. Graham couldn't pay, and was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. Detective McCall told the court of the Hotel Astor bill against Graham.

"Will you pay these bills?" asked the court. "The youth smiled cheerfully and said, 'Judge, I'd certainly like to, but I've only got $1.80 in cash.'"

"Better wire home to father," suggested the court, "if you want to avoid the workhouse."

"Thanks for the suggestion," answered Graham. "I'll think it over."

SAYS LANDLORDS
THREATEN TENANTS

Hirshfield Reports Proposed Damage Suits to Frighten Renters
From Appealing to Courts.

Threats of damage suits against tenants, to frighten them out of appealing to the Municipal Courts under the special rent laws, are being made by landlords, according to statements of Commissioner of Accounts Hirshfield and A. J. W. Hilby, Chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering.

One instance given is that of a landlord alleged to have written a tenant that although he might think the rent demanded was too high, it did not follow that the courts would agree with him. In such a case, the letter stated, even though the rent fixed under a stay granted by the Court, was paid by the tenant, he might become the defendant "in a separate action in the Supreme Court."

Commissioner Hirshfield said that any tenant who pays the rent fixed by the court under a stay has nothing to fear.

Policemen Halt Truck in Atlantic City After Bottle Is Hurled at Them.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 3.—Four men were arrested and forty-six cases of Old Shannon whiskey in their motor truck were seized by the police here to-day.

Patrolmen King and Dubanco saw the truck emerge from a garage opposite the Reading Station and shouted orders to halt. The only reply, the policemen say, was a bottle of whiskey hurled from the truck. The bottle broke and the policemen began shooting. The truck halted and the men gave their names as Otto Kirkman and Charles Theiss of New York and Samuel Gross and E. W. Green of Atlantic City.

BEQUEST TO WAIFS
CHAMBERS WANTED

Woodin Twins Manufacturer
Took From Foundling
Asylum Win Contest.

Charles Woodin and Clara Bells Woodin, twin waifs whom the late John R. Chambers, wealthy manufacturer, took from an orphan's home and surrounded with luxury, will not be forced to go back to the foundling asylum. The provisions in their foster father's will have been upheld.

Surrogate Cochran to-day decided that although Mr. Chambers had not legally adopted the twins, nevertheless, it was clearly his intention, as expressed by his last testament, to provide for them. Thus the children, who after a brief taste of fortune were facing poverty again as the result of contest by relatives of their benefactor's will, are assured comfort and competency for life.

Chambers took the children from an institution at Lakeville, Conn., in November, 1915. He surrounded them with every comfort. In his will he referred to them as "my children," designating them by names he had chosen for them. He died, however, before the adoption had been legally completed, Oct. 25 last.

He bequeathed each $20,000 to be set aside from the first moneys realized from his estate even to the total exclusion, if necessary, of other bequests.

Chambers named his sister-in-law, Mrs. Corinne Gail, as guardian for the twins, and provided $150 a month for her services in caring for them. He directed that the children's heritage should be held in trust by the Columbia Trust Company until they became of age.

The Surrogate placed the cost of the contest upon the contestants.

TRUSTED MAN HELD IN BIG SHORTAGE

Assistant Manager of National City
Company Accused of Stealing Bonds.

John H. Grassman, assistant manager for the National City Company at its branch office, No. 514 Fifth Avenue, was arraigned before Magistrate Schwab in Brooklyn Court to-day charged with grand larceny in the theft of two $1,000 American Telephone and Telegraph bonds belonging to George J. Turner, valued at $1,800.

According to Detective Serg. Gegan, Grassman has confessed to the theft of securities valued at $125,000, all of which he is said to have admitted losing in Wall Street.

Grassman has been confidential man for the National City Company two years and thoroughly trusted. It was said by officials of that company, which is a subsidiary of the National City Bank.

Last Wednesday Harry F. Mayer, general auditor of the company, found shortage. Mayer told Magistrate Schwab incomplete investigation shows a shortage of at least $50,000. Grassman, waving examination, was held in $7,500 bail for the Grand Jury.

Grassman lives at No. 634 75th Street, Brooklyn, and received a salary of $3,000. He is single.

Flushing Country Club to Erect
$150,000 Quarters.
The Flushing Country Club has bought the Garretson and O'Connell farms between Flushing and Jamaica and will lay out a new 18-hole golf course that is expected to compare favorably with any in America. There are sixty-three and seventy-eight acres respectively in the farms, and it is reported $400,000 was paid for them.

The country club will immediately erect a temporary building with a large dining room and lockers for the 400 members, but expects to have on the property a new club house to cost $150,000, to be erected next spring and to be a social center for residents of Flushing, Jamaica, Forest Hills and surrounding country.
